“ Beautiful, caring lady. We shared a lot of laughs and good times over the years, whether going on a garden walk or volunteering together at DPCC where she touched so many lives. She never missed a chance to send a greeting card to her many friends and acquaintances.

You will be greatly missed dear "ya-ya" friend.

“ From the time I first met the mother of my college roommate, "Mrs. Winkler" made a strong first impression as a beautiful and elegant-appearing woman. She quickly added to that favorable impression by including boxes of "Twinkies for Joanie" in care packages sent to her daughter Mary Clare. Through the four years of college and over the decades that followed, I was even more impressed with Carol's ability to keep up with Mary Clare's friends over time, with too many thoughtful gestures over the years to be recorded here. And surely, she must have owned stock in a greeting card company - never forgetting an anniversary or birthday over literally decades! I will forever remember Carol, a/k/a "Mrs. Winkler" for the exemplary way in which she lived out her Catholic faith in daily life, through her love of family and friends.
