

Hilda Mae Woodfork

August 18, 1941 - June 28, 2023

Hilda Mae Woodfork age 81 of Bloomington passed away early Wednesday morning June 28, 2023 at the Gentry Park Health and Living Center. She was born in Vincennes, Indiana on August 18, 1941 to Lester Sievers Sr., and Mary Ann Hess Sievers.

Hilda was a graduate of the Saint Rose Academy in Vincennes Indiana, and went on to study at Vincennes University, Indiana State University, and eventually Indiana University.

Her professional career started as a beautician in Vincennes, Indiana before moving on to the Bloomington schools where she served as a Title 1 Instructor. In the early 1990s she became a master gardener. She truly loved spending time in her beautiful garden and sharing her love of gardening with others. She was a member of the Saint John Catholic Church in Bloomington, Indiana and spent countless hours as a volunteer with the Saint Vincent de Paul Society. She and her husband Basil thoroughly enjoyed traveling throughout their life together.

Hilda leaves behind her son David Woodfork of Zionsville, Indiana, her beloved grandson, Dax Woodfork, and brothers, Larry, Joe and Steve Sievers. She was predeceased by her brothers Donald, Tony, Lester, Jr. "Bud", Irvan, Gilbert, and George. Her sisters, Betty Korb, and Mary Jane Sievers predeceased her as well as her parents.

A gathering to celebrate Hilda's life will be announced at a later date. Allen Funeral Home, and Crematory 4155 S. Old State Rd., 37 is handling the arrangements. Online condolences, photos, and memories may be shared with family and friends at www.allencares.com.

“ I moved to Marlin Hills and Hildy and Basil were my backyard neighbors. They were both very helpful to a single woman learning to take care of her household. Hildy was wonderfully warm and friendly, and loved sharing information about her garden and various recipes. In short, she was a wonderful neighbor. My sincerest condolences to her loved ones and family. She will be greatly missed.
