“ I remember Lyndsey's "Pap" as a kind, gentle and loving man. He embraced my son, Nick, into the family when they started dating in high school.
Perhaps the only solace is that he is with his "Mim"
Deborah Dunning (Nick's mom and Lyndsey's mother-in-law.

“ Hollis was such a sweet man, his smiles use to lighten up the room, he always told me good morning and asked for hugs. It was pleasure to meet someone so sweet like him, while working at golden living. He will be greatly miss by many at glc. Rest in peace.
