“ Murray, I can't describe my sadness when I learned about Ian. You know Ian was like a second son to me. He and Drew were such good friends and he spent so much time at our house and with our family. We enjoyed all the time we spent with Ian (including that trip to Florida for spring break) as he was such a polite and well behaved young man. Please know how special Ian was to our family. I am so sorry for your loss and my thoughts and prayers are with you now and always.... Brenda

“ To All,
He was brilliant, funny, and so charming it always made my day to see him smile. We shared a bond in our love of games. I would ask him a question and he would light up the room when I let him know I got him by what I asked. He had this effect on the lives of so many, and we all thought he was part elf or magi. I am better for having known him and choose to remember why.
