“ Dearest Imogene was the kindest lady that taught me how to put little color coded dots on microfiche when I was a candy striper at the Hospital. She was so precise and kind when she was teaching me. Bless you Marilyn and all your family. My prayers are with you.

“ We had the pleasure of knowing Imogene Hendricks as a personal friend, co-worker, and wonderful neighbor. She was the most caring, loving, lady I have ever known. We had great times together combined with fun, laughs, and tears. During the winter, snowy months, Harold would take Imogene and I to work, and Herbert would bring us home. I'll never forget her kindness, and her compassion for others. She has definitely make footprints in my life. I'm sure she is enjoying heaven being reunited with Herbert and family. God has granted Imogene with longevity, sometimes the winter season of life is not always kind to us, but now she is perfect in heaven. Eternity with Jesus Christ. I plan to see her again someday. May your memories of Imogene comfort you.
Condolences and prayers to your family. With much love, Harold and Ruthie Binkley.

“ We are going to miss you beyond measure. You were the greatest Grandmother. My best childhood memories were those spent with you and Papaw. No electronic devices to occupy my time. Just being with you in the little white house. Playing outside, Saturday morning cartoons, whatever I wanted for breakfast (always French toast) :)
Nothing but love. Such a sweet soul. Please tell Papaw I said hello and I will see you both again some day...
I love you so much,
Julie
