“ I'm grateful of the time Aunt Imogene and I shared memories of ancestors long gone and more recent family members. We laughed as we viewed albums of pictures and pages of written items. I will never forget her gentle voice, Kind ways and yes... her perfect hairdo. Her talks about Uncle Ernie and his illness were priceless. I will always appreciate the advice given to me concerning my husbands illness. Aunt Imogene, you will be missed and fondly remembered. Patricia Wrightsman Graphman
