“ I'm so sorry to hear of Jack's passing. I met him while working at the IMU. Jack was a wonderful, well-respected person. He had a heart of gold. He spoke of his wife, son, and extended family so fondly. He helped my dad after my mom's passing to visit and and keep up with household chores. My dad, now in his mid-90s, so enjoyed his time with Jack too. He was a great man. Until we meet again...

“ I'm so sorry for your family's loss. While I've only known Jack for three years he is one I remember who helped me feel at home starting a new job at the IMU. I didn't work for him, but I worked with him on projects that I needed his expertise and knowledge on. Like others have said he was always a kind and caring soul. He was always willing to listen, always interested in your life outside of work, and always willing to lend a hand or experience to whatever you problem or project you may have. I'll always remember Jack coming up to me at lunch one day during my first week at the IMU and taking the time to welcome me once again and reassure me that things will start to feel like home soon at the IMU. I truly am happy that I got to know Jack even it it was for a short period of time.

“ Jack, Twila and Danny lived in Monona Wisconsin for a bit. Twila was our babysitter for our two sons. Danny was our eldest sons best friend. Jack was the glue that held us all together. He lead by example serving God first and one another second. We will always remember Jack and his family with great fondness. Soar high dear friend!

“ From the moment I met Jack, I felt like I was a part of the family. He called me his daughter, and I called him dad. Jack was a kind and generous soul who could make anyone smile with that grin of his. He loved his church and played the most moving worship music. He loved his hats and his guitars. My fondest memories of him are from camp where he was in his element - grilling, mowing, picking up sticks, and being with family. He was an amazing man, he will be missed dearly. Rest in peace, Jack - we love you.

“ Jack was my boss for the last 10 years and before that when I was a contractor he was my point person for the IMU. I retired in December so I wasn't there for his last month but I did talk to him and would send him pics of my granddaughter so he could share them with his wife. I can tell you three things about Jack. First he lived the Lord with all his heart and secondly he loved his family, when talking about his son and his family it was always with pride and joy as a parent, when the subject came up about wives Jack always with affection and love would talk about Twila, and then there were his in-laws to him they walked on water I never saw a person with such love for his In-laws as I have Jack. And lastly he loved working at the IMU he looked at the IMU building as preserving history and enjoyed being a part of doing his part of preserving it's history. I am sorry for your lost but knowing he his walking the streets of gold waiting for your turn to come and greet him.
