

Jack Walker Reynolds, Jr.

October 23, 1948 - March 24, 2014

Jack W. Reynolds, Jr., age 65 of Bloomington peacefully passed away at his residence on March 24, 2014. He was born in Portland, Oregon on October 23, 1948 to Jack Walker Reynolds, Sr., and Vera Campbell Reynolds. [L][SEP] Jack, received his bachelor's degree from Portland State University, his master's degree from Butler University, and degrees were in history, a subject for which he had great passion. He was a combat veteran of the United States Army serving during the Vietnam War, and frequently talked about his service to his country. [L][SEP] Jack spent his professional career as a business owner, along with his wife Sherry, most recently as the founder of Foster Parent Training Inc. He retired IN 2010. Throughout his life, he always made a top priority of seeking to make the lives of others - particularly disadvantaged people and animals - better, making many personal sacrifices to do so. [L][SEP] He is survived by his son Luke W. Reynolds and daughter in law Peggy of Arlington Virginia, and grandson, Oliver Reynolds. [L][SEP] Burial will be held Friday, April 11, 2014 at 9:00AM PST in the Willamette National Cemetery in Portland, Oregon. He was preceded in death by his parents, by his wife Sherry whom he loved dearly and sister Patricia. [L][SEP] Allen Funeral Home 4155 South Old Highway 37 is handling the arrangements and online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.
