

Jacqueline Edith Monique (Wenzel) DePaemelaere

May 30, 1954 - February 17, 2014

Jacqueline Edith Monique (Wenzel) DePaemelaere, 59 years young, passed away peacefully at home on February 17, 2014. She was a talented seamstress who made her own clothing. She was also involved in knitting, quilting and various other crafts. She was a member of various quilt guilds and would help anyone without hesitation. Jackie had a great smile and a wonderful, distinctive laugh. She was born in Montreal, Canada and lived a good portion of her life in Southern California. She moved with her husband, John, and daughter, Lisette to Bloomington in 2003. Her parents Manfred and Hannelore Wenzel still reside in Southern California along with her brother Edward and his wife Diana. Jackie left behind one grandchild, Mason Hall. There will be no services.

Allen Funeral Home 4155 South Old Highway 37 is handling the arrangements and online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

Tribute Wall

PH

“ We've enjoyed getting to know both John and Jackie since they moved to Bloomington from California. Jackie was a good friend and we will miss her. Our thoughts and prayers go out to her family.

Paul and Hollie Lutz - October 26, 2015 at 04:07 PM

LI

“ I was shocked and saddened by this notice. I met Jacque thru the local quilt guild and found out she was my neighbor! I have enjoyed talking with her at the various quilting events in Bloomington and visiting as neighbors. I will always remember her positive attitude and wonderful laugh! My deepest condolences to her family.

Linda Barnhill - October 26, 2015 at 04:07 PM