

James "Jim" Allen Fields

February 18, 1964 - November 28, 2025

James "Jim" Allen Fields, 61, of Bedford, Indiana, died on November 28, 2025 at IU Health Bedford Hospital. Jim was born in Youngstown, Ohio, to Harold Martin Fields, Jr. and Elizabeth Jane (Parsons) Fields on February 18, 1964. He graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School in 1982 and served in the United States Air Force. He was married to Cheryl Lynn Wilkes from 1988 to 2008 and fathered two daughters, Julia Margaret Fields and Amanda Lynn Fields. Jim worked at Hubler Chevrolet in Bedford as a Leasing and Consulting Agent for the past 14 years. Outside of work, Jim enjoyed watching racing, football, baseball and other sports and greatly valued his role as a parent and grandparent (PawPaw).

Jim is survived by his children, Julia (Kaleb) Blubaugh of Springville and Amanda (James) Klyczek of Bloomington, brothers Harold Myron Fields of Akron, Ohio, and Joseph Franklin Fields of Las Vegas, Nevada, and grandchildren Kymber Eve Blubaugh and Atticus James Klyczek.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents.

A Celebration of Life and placement in Valhalla Cemetery will be scheduled at a later date. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be sent to a charity of your choice.

“ Our family loves Jimmy! He was always unassuming, and receptive; when he asked you something he listened. A couple of our favorite memories is the video footage my dad took of him as an infant at Grandma's on Christmas rocking back and forth on all fours. The other was on his birthday at Aunt Betsy's when he couldn't blow out the relighting candles she put on his cake.
God bless you Jimmy and family.
