“ I am so sorry to hear of the death of Jimmy. The passing away of a loved one is always with much sorrow. May we have faith and confidence in the Bible's promise of a time when pain, sickness and death are a thing of the past (Revelation 21:3, 4). My condolences are with the family at this difficult time.

“ Jimmy, a familiar smile and laugh that will remain with everyone forever. After touching the hearts of so many with love he has set an example for all to be inspired from. Once passing through stages of grieving there comes a time when thinking of him is no longer just too sad to bear. Instead his memory will be honored with the feeling he places inside each during an embrace, hug and love that was shared. Never forgotten.

“ Jimmy was the best uncle I ever had. He taught me how to shoot my first bow and arrow after shooting me with it first, how to make blackberries look like blood on my hands, how to torture my sisters and get away with it, how to climb trees and many other things. My favorite memory of him was when he taught me how to shoot m first bow and arrow. He was so proud of me the first time I hit the target. He loved to joke around and have fun. Fishing with him was so much fun. He always chased me with worms because he always knew I was scared of them. I could always go to him and talk to him about any and everything. I regret not spending enough time with him or telling him that I love him enough. I feel like we could have been closer and I hate that we weren't close like we could have been. I really hate that he never got to meet Lyric but I know he's watching over her and the rest of our family as we go through life. I know he's sitting next to God helping him plan out our lives and I believe that he won't lead us down the wrong path. He will be missed dearly by all that knew him and I know he's watching over the ones in the family he hasn't met and the one that are soon to be here. I love you very much Uncle Jimmy. You were truly the definition of life.
