“ *Jim has been an example of the kind of Man I want to be. His ability to show love and kindness, faith and conviction has taught me a great deal. His way of sharing hard truths in a caring way is something I will carry with me always.
I am sorry we were unable to attend Jim's memorial. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family today.
God Bless,

“ Jim was a good man. I spent some time with him when I lived down in Bloomington for about a year and he had some good sobriety and I enjoyed having lunch together on Mondays after the noon meeting at the cozy. We Kept in touch. I will forever remember founders day 2014 went out there and met up did some riding spent some time together just enjoying the life God gave us. I will always cherish the moments I spent with Jim. God loves him and He knew I did too.
