“ I would like to first start out by sending my thoughts & prayers to Aunt Sandy and the boys. This is the first I have heard of Uncle Jimmy's passing 😞 Uncle Jimmy will always remain in my memories. As a child growing up Uncle Jimmy would always treat me like one of his boys whenever I visited. He would take us hunting, horseback riding and camping. He had one of the best laughs that you could ever hear. One that you would always remember. I remember once when Stephen got a brand new truck (Brown Ford if my memory serves me correct) we took it out back in one of the old trails to drive it around. It was muddy outside and Stephen hit a tree with it. Uncle Jimmy just gave out one of his famous laughs and commented " oh well it's not going to stay new forever." Through the years he would bring up that story from time to time and still laugh about it even then. He was a caring man who loved his family dearly and his horses. Again, many prayers to Aunt Sandy, the boys and the rest of the family. 🙏🙏🙏 Bruce & Leslie Shields

“ Grew up with Sandy and Sanders. She met Jimmy and brought him home. He was one of those guys you meet tv he first time and it felt like you grew up with him. Jimmy and his whole family were a hoot to be around. Weather riding horses shooting guns are camping out behind the family house by the haunted cave. Jamie will never be forgotten. Love you guys praying for you.
