

James Van Horn Sr.

June 22, 1942 - August 3, 2013

James Van Horn Sr., 71, a lifelong Bloomington resident, succumbed to COPD, lung and brain cancer at home surrounded by his family on August 3, 2013. The ones he laughed with, lived for, and loved on. He was known as Big Jim or JW. Jim was born in Bloomington, Indiana June 22, 1942 to Glenn and Hazel (Osburn) Van Horn. He was a self-employed Mechanic and Salesman.

JW was a loving father, husband, adopted grandfather, friend to all, and an active member of Cruisin' Classics Car Club 1995-2007.

JW was survived by his wife Sharon of 37 years, son Jim Jr. and his wife Kathy, brother-in-law Guy Morris, sister-in-law Janet Meadows, family friend Angie Guess, adopted grandchildren Priscilla Cuevas, April Romero, Oscar Romero Jr., and many loving nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

A private memorial service was held on August 3, 2013.

In Lieu of flowers donations can be made to the American Cancer Society or McDoel Baptist Church.

Allen Funeral Home is handling arrangements. Friends can send condolences to www.allenfuneralhome.org

“ We had the pleasure of meeting Jim when our daughters Alison and Erin rented apartments from them Jim and Sharon while students at IU. I loved talking to Jim about cars and anything else, and even brought my Dad and Uncle out to talk to him when they visited. He was knowledgable and kind and I am sure he will be missed greatly. I pray that all will take comfort in the knowledge that Jesus was his savior.
