“ My mother and Jan were close growing up and was in charge of my parents wedding reception. So, when I was a child our families would get together often at Jan and Pete’s home. I remember their home layout as if it were yesterday.

As a child I thought Jan was my aunt since she always had me call her that only to find we were in fact cousins. Jan was always the sweetest person always with a smile and warm embrace.

She’s joined the family reunion in the heavens.
