

Janet Ann Cook

April 4, 1935 - March 14, 2021

Janet Ann (Kehl) Sanders Cook, loving mother, grandmother, sister and aunt entered Heaven's gates on Sunday, March 14, 2021. Born April 4, 1935 Janet was a member of Cataract Baptist Church in Cloverdale, IN and a people person who loved spending precious time with her friends and family. She loved every pet she ever had as if it were another child. She also loved Elvis music. She was a fun and loving person and not afraid or embarrassed to sing or dance when she heard her favorite songs. She made everyone she spent time with feel like they were dearly loved. You couldn't visit without getting a hug when you arrived and another hug when you left and hearing her say "I love you". She enjoyed the simple pleasures of life.

Her survivors include her brother, John Kehl (Rebecca), son, William Sanders (Karen), grandsons David Sanders (Cindy), BJ Sanders (PJ) and Jonathan Sanders (Rhonda Pitcock) and great grandchildren, Corbin, Ava, Caden, Alissa and Lane. Also, several loved nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Fred Kehl and Mary (Walsh) Kehl, husbands, William Earl Sanders and James Cook, sisters, Rosalie (Kehl) Stiver and Mary (Kehl) Hughey, Lindsay, Denger, son, David Sanders and grandson Little Billy.

A graveside service will be held at 10:00 am Thursday, March 18, 2021 at the Forest Lawn Cemetery in Greenwood, Indiana at the Rear Chapel.

Allen Funeral Home and Crematory have been entrusted with arrangements.

“ Aunt Janet will be missed and loved always. She has been my reconnection to my Kehl side of my family. She gave me pictures that I didn't think I would ever see. I had no pics of my early childhood or pics of my Mother and Father's wedding. She gave me these, and it helped fill a void in my life. She did these things out of love. She was was a very special lady that will always be missed
