“ *My mothter is Laverne Sowders and worked at Ye Ole Wash House on South Walnut Street many years ago. Janet was one of her favorite customers and Mom always spoke highly of her. She had a gentle sweet spirit, she gave freely with her kindness and possessions;she past her daughters cloths on to my daughter.
My Mom is totally bedfast, and she remembers more from the past than present. I know she would want your family to know that you have are heartfelt sympathy. You and yours will be in our prayers.*

“ Janet was a special person and my entire family loved her. Eric still talks about her brownies and how much better they were than mine. Lonnie always spoke about how nice it was to see Janet and her parents at Willies and what pleasant conversations they had. She will be missed by all she touched. Our thoughts and prayers are with the entire family.
