

Janet Summers

December 12, 1940 - June 25, 2015

Janet P. Summers, 74, of Bloomington passed away Thursday evening in the comfort of her home, surrounded by her loved ones singing her favorite songs. Janet was born on December 12, 1940 in Bloomington, IN; she was the daughter of Joseph and Vietta (Virt) Sater.

Janet, a beautiful woman with an equally beautiful voice, was a Rock Hunting extraordinaire and a Mushroom Hunting enthusiast who was passionate about spending time with her family while exploring the wonders of nature. She taught us to recognize and appreciate the many living things the outdoors had to offer. Sure enough, we all learned how to fish!

Janet is survived by her children Curtis & Patti Barrow, Kimila Barrow, Reba Braxton, Lonnie & Vickie Summers, Sherri Smith, and Mindy her beloved cat; grandchildren Danielle, Darren-Bastian, Jessica, Kevin Joseph, Matthew, Nastasia and Aaron, Noah and Yasuko, Savannah, Stephen and Stephanie; and several great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents Joseph and Vietta Sater, husband Stephen R. Summers and siblings Ileen Murray, Reba Carson, Ron Sater, Jim Sater and Horace Sater.

A Celebration of life will be held at a later date for Janet Summers, Reba Carson and Ron Sater.

“ *Curt and Kim,
I was so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. Even though it's been years ago, I remember her as always happy and smiling when I was a little girl. Both of you and the rest of your family are in my thoughts at this time.*

“ Words cannot express how much i love, & will miss my mother. Mom touched the heart & soul of anyone who knew her. I will cherish the time i got to spend with mom in the last few months. We would sit & talk about our family & remembering how special each of them were. Very dear to me is the special moments watching the animals, & birds that mom could watch just outside her window. She had plenty of feeders & the food we put out would go quickly. All us kids would fill them up for her, if they got low mom would call us until she found someone to fill them for her. When her greatgrandson, Isaac came to visit mom she loved to watch him play,sing & dance for her. The same love was expressed to all the grandkids! Mom had a crowd of family with her when she passed, you could feel the love we all shared for her in the room. Our mom will forever be in our hearts & mind. Before anyone left her house mom would always say: "God bless you." God has blessed mom in many was of which she was aware. I will always love you,my precious mother.
