

Dr. Janette Amboise Chaumont

December 16, 1920 - October 9, 2013

Dr. Janette Amboise-Chaumont of Bloomington, Indiana formerly of Richmond, Kentucky passed away on Tuesday, October 9, 2013. Janette is survived by her beloved dog, her niece Wendy Singleton of Forest, Virginia, her nephew Rick Schomo of Wilmington, NC, her nephew Arthur Ferguson of Pittsburgh, PA, her sister-in-law Nancy Schomo of Richmond, VA, 4 grand-nieces and nephews and many caring friends.

Janette was born on December 16, 1920 the daughter of the late William Ellis Schomo, Sr. and the late Edith Claire Ferguson Schomo. She was also pre-deceased by her beloved brother William Ellis Schomo, Jr., her sister Edith Schomo Miller and her nephew David Jonathan Miller.

Janette received an undergraduate degree from Syracuse University and post-graduate master's and doctoral degrees from other universities in the country. She taught voice at Berea College from 1970-1989.

Music was her passion. She supported several music organizations in the Bloomington area and was connected to the music department at Indiana University. Her daily walks with her dog were characterized by her melodious singing as she made her way around Bloomington. Her dog and her music filled her days with joy.

An avid entertainer, she welcomed guests into her home for holiday meals and celebrations.

A memorial service will be held at Allen Funeral Home on Thursday, October 16, 2013 at 11:00 a.m. The family visitation will take place prior to the memorial at 10:00 a.m. at Allen Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers, please make contributions to The Humane Society of Bloomington.

Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

“ I was a student of Ms A C at Berea from 1980 through 1984. She showed me much love during that time, taking me to Bloomington to see my first operas, letting me stay in her house during the summer break, and even making me baked Alaska! We share the same birthday date. I thought of her last night and this popped up on google. I am sad to read of her passing.

Sorry for your loss.
