“ Annette and Maury...I just heard about Jannette from Carol Wright and I want to express my sympathy to you for your loss. I had the good fortune to visit with Jannette and Jim at the OHS 40th reunion, so I'm grateful I had that opportunity. Lord willing, I look forward to seeing you at the 50th reunion sometime this year! May the Lord give you His grace and peace during this time. ”

“ We are so sorry. Jannette was a classmate of Bill's all through school in Owensboro. And we were all very close in Bloomington while Bill was in grad school at IU. And Lexi and our son, Steve, were born on the same day! Your mother was a truly wonderful friend and woman. 68 ”

“ I was in school with Jannette and Annette in Owensboro. I thought I could tell them apart by their eyes. After not seeing them for many years, I had the pleasure of meeting them at a restaurant in Owensboro last year and recognized Annette immediately. The noise and my hearing prohibited me from completely acknowledging each one and I didn't recognize Jannette. Later I realized that Annette was trying to introduce me to Jannette but I didn't think I recognized any one I knew. Later, I realized that I had not also acknowledged Jannette and felt bad. Learning that the 50th class reunion was to be in September, I was going to apologize for my manners. At our age, you don't know when that opportunity will pass. We should take advantage of our opportunities when they arise. Rest in peace.

“ Dear Annette and Family,

We are so sorry to hear of Jannette's passing. She is at peace! I remember one instance when you both were visiting at my grandmother's house and we were playing. You and Jannette were cleaning your hands on towel, and of course, I was wiping mine on my clothes. Aunt Ginny brought that to my attention.
