“ I am so sorry for this terrible loss. My fiancée Jon Donovan and I lived in Ellettsville and Jon had known Jake in high school. He was a good friend and this is so sad..We would have been there if we had known. All of our condolences to your family during this time. He had an amazing innocent heart, and I am glad he is not suffering any longer. Peace and god bless.

“ We are very sorry to hear of Jake's passing. We have known Jake many years and feel lucky to have called him our friend. Jake rode down to Florida with us one year to get Marvin's brother who had been in a hospital. He helped pack his belongings and drove his truck back for us. He never ask for anything in return and kept us laughing the whole way. He was always happy to help people and truly cared how they were doing. Our prayers are with you. Bye Jake we will miss you!
