“ I can't even begin to tell the family of how VERY sorry I am for your loss! Jayne provided me so much guidance in my personal life. Her insight so unique that at times I would be thinking how clever, and duh why didn't I get it to begin with. She was honest totally up front about her ideas and beliefs, that is a special quality in todays world there are too many fakes and liars...Not Jayne! I knew she cared about me through the honesty she displayed even though she knew I didn't want to hear it she loved me enough to be that honest of a friend!! I will forever hear her laughter and see her smile within the confines of my mind....and that brings me joy. Find that joy within yourselves. God bless you all!! Sheila Lee
