

Jeffrey Lynn Kelley

July 7, 1958 - November 14, 2014

Jeffrey Lynn Kelley, age 56 of Bloomington passed away Friday November 14, 2014. He was born in Bloomington on July 7, 1958 to John W. and Rhea Eads Kelley.

Jeff attended Bloomington High School South. He had great dedication and passion for his job at Victor Oolitic Stone Quarry, where he worked with pride for 40 years. He was a true outdoorsman, enjoying the outdoors to the fullest. Jeff was a long time member of the Bloomington Archery Club. He loved deer, turkey, and mushroom hunting. His most memorable were his trips out west Elk hunting with his family. He truly lived to hunt.

He is survived by his daughter Jennifer Hawkins and her husband Jason of Unionville; daughter Tara Neideffer and her husband Chuck of Bedford; grandson Will Hawkins and granddaughter Siera Kelley; his mother Rhea Dawn Kelley; sister Melodee Shaw and her husband Wayne as well as uncles, aunts and a niece. He was preceded in death by his father.

Private family services are being conducted and Allen Funeral Home 4155 South Old Highway 37 is handling the arrangements.

Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

“ I'm very sorry for your loss. Jeff was a great boss, co-worker and a great buddy. It's gonna be very different without him working by my side at work. Words can't express what I feel. I had a lot of respect for Jeff. He made me laugh and smile everyday. I worked with him for 11 short years. I can honestly say it was a great privelege knowing him.

“ im so sorry for your loss,im very grateful that i had the opportunity to know jeff,and thankful he took the time to be my friend these last 20 years,i wish everyone could have seen the side of jeff that i knew ,he was the kind of guy that would help anyone out at anytime and not ask for anything in return he was always there for me when i needed a friend and i learned so much from him. i will try and honor him by carrying on the life, and work lessons he taught me .i will truly miss him.
