

Jenni Niswander

October 5, 1961 - August 26, 2016

Jenni Ream Niswander died at age 54 on Friday, August 26th, 2016.

Jenni was born October 5th, 1961 in Bloomington, Indiana. She was a loving mother, devoted wife and beloved friend to many. Her natural ability to connect with and love almost anyone led her to her career as a nurse where her residents were more than patients, they were her friends. She was a huge Cincinnati Reds fan and she passed this love on to her children. They had the great fortune of finding a second family at the Smithville Ballpark and without the love and support of these dear friends, life would not have been the same. Jenni was most happy when her home was filled with teenagers and she was proud to call herself a Smithville Mom.

Jenni was preceded in death by her beloved husband of twenty five years, William F. Niswander, her son, Maxwell Niswander, her father, John Ream, mother, Jacqueline Brown, and siblings John and Julie Ream.

She is survived by children Savannah and Henry Niswander, step-children Billie Hall and Amber Niswander Hollet, sisters Jackie Ream and Jane Phillips and many adoring nieces and nephews.

Visitation will take place at Allen Funeral Home on Thursday, September 1st from 4 - 8 and the funeral will take place at the same location on Friday at 1pm.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to www.gofundme.com/niswanderfund or Niswander Family Memorial Fund at the IU Credit Union for Savannah and Henry.

“ Jenni was my Co worker and my rock and my partner in crime. She taught me everything I know about nursing and always gave a helping hand to anyone in need. She had a heart of gold and she had a passion for baseball. She loved her kids dearly and unconditionally. She was like a mother to me in last 3 years I've known her. She was a great person and I am ever so grateful to have gotten to know her and her family. Rip jenni and may your soul rest next to your husbands and your wings spread over your two children here. Love u very much my dear friend. Natalie Williams.

“ Jenni was the main nurse for my 102 year old grandma at the nursing home. She and grandma could go "around and around" arguing about showers, eating , getting out bed too early. Jenni was right of course and she was a tough strong person. One day, grandma says "Jenni has not been here for a few days" and the other nurse informed us she has left employment there. I informed grandma and she sat quietly a few minutes then burst out crying. She thought Jenni left because of her! I explained that nurses are pretty resilient and I was sure that Jenni must had other reason's to leave. Jenni was such a good nurse, person, to be working with the elderly. She gave so much of herself to others and not be forgotten. RIP Jenni !! Karen Jessee

“ Words are hard to form with the numerous memories I have of jenni. As a co worker, and a friend. She definetly had a heart of gold. Her smile and dangling earrings always stood out. She and I bonded from the start over our love for our kids and their sports. Every Monday we shared stories about the sporting events of the weekend. We giggled and laughed and rolled our eyes thru out the years. Sometimes we cried together but Jenni had amazing strength and love in everything she did. She was always a wife, mom and nurse giving her all to the lives she touched. Her passion for outdoors and life was amazing. The pride she had in her children and her husband was known by everyone she ever met. She was an amazing person. I'm so blessed to have known her over the years. Thank you Jenni for all the memories. Fly high with Bill and be at peace. Henry and Savannah, I pray you find some peace and lean on each other like your mom would want. You both were your moms world.

“ My heart is breaking. Jenni was my one of our Mother's nurses; Mom's favorite nurse. Jenni made mom feel like she was her only patient to care for. She was very kind to my sister and me. Many knew her abundant kindness and loving sprit. I am fortunate mine and Jenni's paths crossed. My heart breaks for Jenni's precious Children. Many times your sweet Mother shared with me how proud she was of each of her you and how deeply she loved you. You must truly be wonderful people.

“ I think it's all been said. Jennie was a very special creation. She had a heart of pure love for all. Know you are not alone at this time or any other. Prayers are going up for each of you. And the God of creation, YOUR heavenly Father, never leaves us alone, we leave Him. He knows your pain and longs to hold and comfort you through it. Trust Him.

“ Jenni was one of the most caring and selfless people I have ever had the honor of knowing. The love she had for her children and husband was monumental. She was a wonderful and caring nurse. She always asked how you and you're family were. She helped so many not only with words of comfort but buying Christmas gifts, school supplies, winter coats, meals and gas money for those who couldn't afford it. Her infectious smile and twirling of her hair were always the first thing you saw when you walked in the back door. My heart goes out to her children, may you always know what a wonderful woman she was. Heaven truly gained an amazing angel. Fly high Jenni....fly high.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Jenni for over a year in my first job as a nurse. She had an incredibly big heart and would always light up when she would talk about her children. She touched the lives of so many people with her work as a nurse. My thoughts are with all of those who will feel her loss and I feel very glad to have known her.

“ out of the fifteen years I've been a nurse Jenny stands out in my mind as probably the most compassionate and caring nurse I ever come across...she loves her job and she loved her residence and got along well with all coworkers. Always there to lend a helping hand. I know she loved and missed her husband Bill dearly. they had a love affair that most people only dream about and out of that can two beautiful children who she loved with all her heart. Jenni you will be greatly missed, but you're with the love of your life now. fly high sweet lady fly high!!!!

Henry and Savannah, I am so sorry to hear about your Mom. I was a very dear friend with your Dad since we were in our teens. We always had a nick-name for each other and I remember when he married your Mom, Jenni and I also became a very good friends. That nickname always stuck with us!
