

Jerry Leonard Zink

March 7, 1940 - December 12, 2016

Jerry Leonard Zink, 76, of Bloomington, Indiana, passed away on Monday December 12, 2016 at Garden Villa Nursing Center in Bloomington. Jerry was born in Salem, Indiana on March 7, 1940, the son of John and Alberta (Hammersmith) Zink.

Jerry graduated from Bloomington High School in 1958 and was employed for 35 years at RCA/Thompson Industries in Bloomington. He also worked at Kroger Groceries.

Jerry was preceded in death by his father and mother. Survivors include his sister, Rosanne (Zink) Tardy and brother-in-law, Richard Tardy, of Bloomington, Indiana, nephews, Rick Tardy (wife-Kathy) of Noblesville, Indiana, and Greg Tardy (wife - Sun-Nita) of Greensboro, North Carolina, and niece Amy Schmahl (husband - Steve) of Centennial, Colorado. Other survivors include great nephews Neal, Logan, and Henry Tardy, and David Schmahl, great nieces Emily and Sarah Schmahl, and Grace Tardy.

Jerry was a life-long member of the Odd Fellows Lodge organization and held many positions of leadership responsibility in that organization. He was a member of the Clear Creek Christian Church and enjoyed singing in the Choir.

His hobbies included bowling, golf, watching sports on TV, and gospel music.

His passion for gospel music took him to many different venues in the United States to attend gospel music concerts and performances.
