

Jerry Chambers

October 5, 1943 - March 21, 2012

Jerry L. Chambers, 68, passed away at the Golden Living Center in the presence of his wife Gwyn Chambers, family and friends. Jerry was employed by Indiana University, retiring in 2007 from the Internal Audit Department after 42 years of service. As a member of the Sanders Pentecostal Church, Jerry was known to be energetic and dynamic in his support of the mission of the church. Jerry was a praise singer as well as an active member of the church choir. Jerry served for a time with the U.S. Army Reserve, graduated from Smithville High School in 1961. He graduated from Indiana University with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1965. Jerry is survived by his wife, Gwyn Chambers, his brother, Randy (Vicky) Chamber of Bloomington, his sister, Judy (Rudy) Langley of Bloomington, two brothers-in-law; Bob Mosier (Karen Fearon) of Conroe, TX and Rev. Keith Mosier of Kokomo, IN and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents Samuel and Annmae (Tate) Chambers, his mother and father-in-law, Robert and Doris (Nelson) Mosier, and two brothers-in-law, Jim Southern and Bill Mosier. Funeral services will be held 1:00 p.m. Saturday, March 24, 2012 at Shiloh Temple, 77 W. Smithville Rd. and State Road 37 in Bloomington with Rev. Joe Nelson and Rev. Keith Mosier officiating. Burial will be at Clover Hill Cemetery in Harrodsburg. Family will receive friends at the church one hour preceding the service. Visitation will be from 3-8 p.m. Friday at Allen Funeral Home, 4155 S. Old State Rd. 37. A reception of friends and family will take place following the cemetery services at the Sanders Pentecostal Church annex on Fairfax Rd. in Sanders. In lieu of flowers, Jerry requested memorial contributions be made to the Sanders Pentecostal Church Building Fund.
