

Jesse Earle Demshar

June 6, 1993 - October 12, 2022

Jesse Earle Demshar, 29, of Bloomington passed away on Wednesday, October 12, 2022 unexpectedly after an accident. He was born on June 6, 1993 in Bloomington the son of Bruce Edward and Nedra Sue (Reeves) Demshar. Jesse was a 2012 graduate of Bloomington High School North. Over the years he worked at Master Rental as an assembler, he also worked at Indian Creek Limestone as a machine operator, and worked at The BeaHive Ranch as a farm laborer building fences, and various other chores around the farm and for neighbors. Jesse enjoyed mushroom hunting, deer hunting, the shooting sports, and riding his motorcycle. His favorite thing was his dog, Lucy and loved being outdoors. He was very artistically talented at drawing portraits and still scenes, writing poetry, cooking and sewing. He had good technical ability and could design things without engineering training. Jesse had a good and generous heart who loved his family and friends. He would help anyone who needed it if he could. He will be greatly missed. The family thanks everybody who have prayed for Jesse and supported him and the family over the years.

Jesse is survived by his loving parents, Bruce and Nedra Demshar of Bloomington; his sister Kirsten L. (Andrew) Millard of Bedford; two nephews, Carter and Levi Millard; and one niece, Cheyenne Millard; and his grandmother Shirley Demshar of Bloomington, as well as many aunts, uncles, and cousins.
