

Joel Shaun Tieman

June 19, 1955 - March 19, 2024

Joel Shaun Tieman, 68, passed away peacefully on March 19, 2024 after a courageous battle with cancer and is awaiting the return of Christ.

Joel was one of a kind. Driven and passionate with a “get it done” mantra to life, he was continually surrounded by family and friends.

Even as a child, Joel was involved in all things nature and outdoors. He participated in 4H and his love for horses only grew from there; serving as a judge at the Quarter Horse Congress and spending his later years training and riding on “the back 40”.

Joel’s drive and zest for life started early. At 18, Joel started selling real estate and quickly became one of the state’s youngest brokers before starting his own business; Energy Conservation Systems. A few years later he completed his pilot’s license and flew his sweetheart Elizabeth all over the US.

Exploring and maintaining his sense of adventure, Joel began constructing what would later become his family’s log home; cutting and milling each tree by hand.

On July 4, 1979 Joel married the love of his life, Elizabeth. Through their faith and love for Christ the two worked in Bible Ministry while raising their two children. Equally yoked and a team until the end, working hand in hand for 42 years; a heavenly match.

Joel will be remembered as a faithful, fun-loving, man of God and we praise the day we will all be gathered together again.

Joel is survived by his Son, Shaun Paul Tieman; Daughter, Elysia Collin Tieman; fur baby Lucy; his horses, Misty and Stalker and his grand-dogs, Colby and Bear. Joel is preceded in death by his wife, Elizabeth Shaw Tieman (Rouse); father, Leonard Warren Tieman; and his mother, Alberta Jewell Tieman (Sheilds).

A Celebration of Life service will be held at 2pm Saturday, April 13, 2024 at the Student Auditorium at City Church, in Bloomington Indiana.

In lieu of flowers, Memorial contributions can be made to <https://everloved.com/life-of/joel-tieman/donate/>

“ We first met Joel, 4-5 years ago. He repaired several windows. From there he became a handyman for us but more than that. He seemed to know someone with the skills for whatever we needed to be done. More importantly, we came to know a man of deep faith who shared that with everyone around him. It was impossible to to reflect on your own faith and bask in his deep and all encompassing faith whenever we were with him. He truly was a child of God. Though we did not know Joel that long we will miss is faith, his smile, and the warmth he generated whenever he came in our door.

“ I met Joel more years ago than I can hardly remember. We met through a mutual best friend Mark Mitchner. Mark grew up living just down the road from Joel and they remained friends all their lives. I still remember that Mark told me " If Joel asks you to go on an outing with him, be sure to go. It is bound to be an adventure. " Joel and I never went on that great adventure together but continued to bump into each other over and over though the years. While not close friends there was no doubt in my mind that Joel knew the Lord and was always willing to talk to someone who did not or just needed a nudge. Joel was a truly unique individual and a good soul. The world will be a less interesting place without him. Rest well good friend and give my greetings to Mark when you meet him in heaven.
