“ We were very sorry to hear about John who was our next door neighbor for many years. He and Adele were very enjoyable and we could not have asked for better neighbors. Our sympathy goes out to their family during this difficult time.

“ Our prayer is that you will find comfort in knowing the God has called another Angel Home. John was a Great man. He did so much for both Alan and I through the years as well as others because Victor Oolitic was a FAMILY not just a business. He always made sure Alan got me something nice for Christmas. He will be greatly missed.

“ To the Edgeworth family I am so sorry for your loss. As an employee at Victor Oolitic Stone Company for 16 years I have met you all and watched your children grow up and I know how important family was to John. That showed to employees too, not only would he ask how we were doing, but how our family was doing. John will be missed, but I am sure Adele is excited to see him! My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time.

Sincerely,
