

John F. Harlow, II

November 9, 1972 - June 25, 2015

John F. Harlow II, 42, of Bloomington passed away at his home on Thursday, June 25, 2015. John was born on November 9, 1972 in Bloomington, IN; he was the son of Jack and Marcia (Hodges) Harlow.

John was a graduate of Indiana University with a degree in General Studies. He was a hockey player with Bloomington Blades while growing up. John had a great sense of humor and the ability to make people laugh. He loved music an interest he shared with his son and was passionate about history. Those of us who loved him will miss him and cherish his memory.

John is survived by his greatest achievement, his son Nathan Kyle Harlow; his parents Jack and Marcia Harlow; two nieces Heather Harlow and Cordelia Harlow; and sister-in-law April Adkins.

He was preceded in death by his brother Aaron Harlow.

Memorial contributions may be given to the New Leaf/New Life program, 1010 S. Walnut Street Suite F, Bloomington, IN 47403.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

“ Dear Jack & Marcia, I am so very sorry for the passing of your son. I know it is hard, and there are few answers for the questions filling your mind. However, I want to encourage you and your family to place your hope and trust in Christ. It is in times like this The Lord will stand with you if you just ask Him. Be assured of my prayers for your comfort. Please read St. John chapter 14. I have found the bible to be the best source of comfort and assurance for today, and every day. May God bless and comfort you, Jack Duckworth.
