

John "Jack" H. McGeary III

December 5, 1941 - July 2, 2014

Jack McGeary, 72, of Bloomington, passed away on Wednesday, July 2, 2014 after a courageous battle with cancer. Jack was born on December 5, 1941 in Chicago, IL; he was the son of John and Helen (Miller) McGeary.

Jack attended Archbishop Curley High School and graduated from the University of Miami in 1964. He then went on to Indiana University where he met and married Nina Ewing and had two children together. Jack was very active in the family real estate business in Florida. Jack was avid about golf and football, he enjoyed coaching both.

Jack relocated to Indiana in the early 1990's. He continued to be involved in many real estate investments. Jack liked to play golf at Eagle Pointe Golf Resort with many friends. In 2004 he met his current wife Teresa. They spent their time traveling and enjoying family, friends and their life together.

Jack is survived by his wife Teresa McGeary; sons Jeff McGeary (Audra) of Wellington, FL and Sean McGeary (Keiler) of Madison, CT; five grandchildren Owen, Greyson, Jacob, Elena and Colin; two sisters Eileen McGeary of Ft. Lauderdale, FL and Peggy McGeary of McCaysville, GA; and three stepsons James, Justin and Jeremy Brown.

A Memorial Service will be held at 7pm on Friday, July 11, 2014 at Allen Funeral Home. Family will receive friends from 5-7pm Friday at the funeral home.

Memorial contributions may be given to IU Health Hospice House in memory of Jack.

Special thanks to Dr. Timothy Devitt, Bloomington Oral Surgery and team. Thank you for your overwhelming support, care and compassion. I can never repay the time Jack and I were able to spend together.

“ Friend, I'm sorry we lost touch and I wasn't able to say goodbye. You were a true gentleman in every sense of the word and you will be greatly missed, Action Jackson.

Much love and all the best to the family and all his friends, I'm glad you were able to have time with him. You will be in my thoughts and prayers.

*Respectfully,
Michele Wallace*
