

John (J.D.) Daniel

March 30, 2016

John Daniel (J.D.), age 35, of Bloomington, Indiana, entered into eternal life on Wednesday, March 30, 2016 , after a courageous battle with cancer.

His infectious smile and mischievous grin will be greatly missed by all. J.D. worked as a carpet and tile installer, as well as for Better Way Moving and Storage.

He is survived by his mother and stepfather, Helen and Steve Lucas; his sisters, Jayme (Daniel) Tilford and Shannon (Matt) Livingston; brother, Ryan (Cathy) Love; and step-brothers, Brian (Mika) Lucas and Brad (Laura) Lucas. He is also survived by his aunts and uncles, Jamie (Keith) Smith, Jenny (Jeff) Mothersbaugh, Jim (Sherry) Bradley, Bill (Dana) Bradley, Kelly (April) Bradley, Connie (Mike) Johnson, Joe (Pam) Bradley, and Chris Bradley, along with several nieces, nephews, and cousins, too many to mention.

The family would like to also acknowledge his extended family, Bryce and Ashley Vilchuck, Dennis, Mama and Dusty Suttles, Brandon Rollins, Tammy Ray, Armondo Santiago, Neil Gwin, and long time companion, Amy Daughtery.

His family would also like to thank his Uncle Bill and Aunt Dana for their love and support throughout his life.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the IU Simon Cancer Care of Indianapolis or Bloomington Hospital Hospice Care.

God saw you were getting tired and a cure was not meant to be. So he put his arms around you, and whispered come with me. With tearful eyes, we watched you as we saw you pass away. Although we love you deeply we could not make you stay. Your golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest, God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best. J.D. has been saved so he could enter Heaven to be with Jesus Christ, his Lord and Saviour. J.D. was famously known for his phrase, "I will miss you all but I must go now." It followed him throughout his life.

Rest in Peace J.D. "No more questions."

“ Trying to think of something to say, but I keep erasing it. I think because there aren't any words to express how much I will miss you. All I can say is, life will never be the same without my big brother here. I am so glad we spent my birthday just talking and laughing. I don't think you knew just how much that day meant to me. Please look over our mom. She needs to know you are there. I love you beyond words. Til we meet again. Love always, your sister.

“ JD I'm happy to know you are no longer in pain or suffering. You were such a great person and did anything for anyone!! I have so many awesome memories! You taught me so much, like the time I came to pick you up when I was in highschool in Bedford and drove in the dark with my dash lights out and I had no idea why, you laughed at me and told me it was my fuse and that my tail lights were out. Then you laughed even harder when I told you I had no idea where and what fuses are!!! And then time you tried teaching me how to drive your 5 speed S10 at McCormicks Creek, I told you I was scared because I didn't want to kill it, you said its okay its really hard to kill it, needless to say I never got it in gear, it always died!!! You loved giving me a hard time! I love you and will miss, but I will never forget you. Rest in Peace

“ So when JD & I where about 10 years old the Monroe county fair had just come to a close that year. As you all know his parents where ground keeper's so we had access to the fair grounds, so we would jump off of a roof into a large pile of hay. JD went first being the dare devil we was, so i went next, as we played in this hay i asked him what these little pellets were in the hay, JD responded with "they are vitamin's for the animals" and me being the city boy i was took his word for it. After a couple hours of playing we went back to his house and Helen asked what that smell was, we told her about the hay and the fun we just had. Helen informed us about the hay being dirty and that the vitamins we had been playing in for the last 2 hours was in fact Goat poop. Now that im clean and dont smell anymore, what i would do to play in poop with JD one more time. He will be dearly missed and i could not have asked for a better friend, I love you JD and i will see you again one day at the gates of Heaven.
