“ Our deepest sympathy to all of John's family. We had met John and Martha and later Mary through Elderhostels and thoroughly enjoyed the company of this wonderful man. And, contrary to a published report, John looked like a pretty "accomplished golfer" to us in the dozen or so times we played with him. Not a bad bowler either.

“ Donna, Diane and David,

We are so sorry for the loss of your father. We both wish we could be with you, but neither of us are well enough to travel. Your father and Marion were a very important part of our lives. Uncle Raymond and I both have very wonderful memories of times spent with them. I will always hold them close in my heart. I love all three of you very much and will keep you in my prayers as you move through the next few days.

With much love,

Uncle Raymond & Aunt Jeannie
