

John Wesley Struempfh

September 9, 1977 - July 7, 2023

John Wesley Struempfh, age 45, of Bloomington, IN passed away July 7, 2023.

He was born September 9, 1977 in Bloomington, the only son of William Neal Struempfh and Deborah Sue (Wren) Struempfh.

John was a graduate of Bloomington High School South in 1996 and took a few courses at Ivy Tech. He later worked for several different companies in Bloomington, IN, Goodlettsville, TN and Springfield, TN. For over thirteen years he has been employed for Red Oaks Industries, Inc. in Bloomington, IN.

At a young age John loved to do tricks on his Redline bike, and later moved on to skateboarding, took up a little keyboarding and guitar. Music and art were his main passions in life. John loved to draw and sketch in different mediums: pencil, colored pens, charcoal, and watercolors. He was shy, polite and very kind hearted.

John is survived by his father, William N. Struempfh and his mother, Deborah (Wren) Struempfh of Bloomington, along with many aunts, uncles, and cousins who reside in Missouri.

John is preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Norbert X. Struempfh and Phyllis M. (Fites) Struempf; his maternal grandparents, Julian C. Wren and Gloria M. (Plybon) Wren; and his uncle, Christopher D. Wren of Jefferson City, Missouri.

The family has asked that donations be made in John's name to the American Heart Association, Bloomington Habitat for Humanity or the Bloomington Animal Shelter.

Cremation rites have been accorded with visitation on Saturday, July 22, 2023 at Allen Funeral Home and Crematory 4155 South Old State Road 37 from 2:00-4:00 pm. A celebration of life will be announced and held at a later date.
