

John Woodrow Williams

June 12, 1927 - October 8, 2018

John Woodrow Williams, 91, of Bloomington passed away on Monday, October 8, 2018 at Hearthstone Health Campus. He was born June 12, 1927 to Benham E and Josie Williams in Freedom, Indiana.

Upon graduation from Freedom High School in April, 1945, he enlisted in the United States Army before his 18th birthday. He served two years and was honorably discharged from the United States Air Corp.

When he returned home, he worked for Chevrolet in Indianapolis and on the farm with his father for the next 3 years. In 1950 he started working for RCA as a loading dock foreman and continued doing so for 16 years. In 1965 he enrolled in Lane Institute where he earned an associate degree in Drafting. After graduation, he went to work at Westinghouse where he remained as a draftsman until he retired in 1992. While at Westinghouse he also served on the Board of Directors for the Westinghouse Credit Union. He was a member of First United Methodist Church and the American Legion, Post 18.

Survivors include his son and daughter in law John and Ginger Williams, grandson Kenton, sister and brother in law Janet and Paul McCarter, sisters in law Betty Kale, Wilma Fleetwood and Melva Williams along with many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 54 years Glodene Williams, his parents, his brother Benham E Williams Jr, sister in law Thelma Fleetwood, brothers in law Richard Kale, Warren Fleetwood, Verlyn Fleetwood and William Waggoner.

A funeral service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, October 12, 2018 at Allen Funeral Home and Crematory, 4155 S. Old State Road 37, Bloomington. Rev. Mark Fenstermacher will preside. Family will receive friends from 10:00 a.m. until the time of service. You are invited to share a memory or leave an online condolence to John's family at www.allencares.com
