“ Hi Cindy, I'm still thinking about you and I wanted to share a poem with you. I'm here for you if you need anything at all just call. Love you

Donna Thompson (Skirvin)

When i am gone release me, let me go.

I have so many things to see and do,

you mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,

but be thankful we has so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess how much you've given me in happiness.

I thank you for the love you have shown,

but now it is time i travel on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust.

That it is only for a while that we must part so treasure the memories within your heart.

I wont be far away for life goes on.

And if you need me call and I will come.

Though you cant see or touch me I will be near and if you listen with your heart, you'll hear

all my love around you soft and clear

And then when you come this way alone

I'll great you with a smile and a welcome home.

“ I am a resident of Redbud Hills and have enjoyed having Jordan around our community in his different roles--walking dogs, busing, working in the kitchen. When he came to clean off our table he always talked and laughed with us. He had an infectious laugh---I'll always remember it! Thank you for sharing Jordan with us. And I'm so, so very sorry for your loss.

“ The residents and staff at Redbud Hills loved Jordan. He had a great sense of humor. He was a hard worker and I was sorry when he gave me his two-weeks notice. I was sad to see him go, but I was proud of him for giving a two-week notice and following through. That showed maturity on his part. Anyway, on his last day I reminded him that 'the grass wasn't always greener on the other side' and that we would gladly bring him back on board if he ever wanted to come back. I was so glad he did. We watched him grow in his new role here, and he was such a hard worker. He always stayed until all the work got done. The hardest part for me is walking into the kitchen and not seeing him in there wearing his white earbuds. We will miss him so very much, and he will always be in our hearts. I can't help but feel that a part of me is missing, and I will never forget him. I'm so thankful for the memories of working with Jordan. My sincerest condolences to Cindy and the rest of his family.
