“ So many memories of joyce flood through my mind. One that stands out the most is a time she taught me about the coming of christ when we all shall be gathered, joined in the sky with our Lord. this was only one of many teachings Joyce shared with me. I had a dream about this one when she had shared it with me that her and I were flying up to meet Jesus together. I can remember this so vividly and it has been more than 30 years. although we're not going together, I have no doubt I will see her again at our heavenly home up in the sky with Jesus. Rest in peace sweet lady. My love and prayers are with her family.

Joyce was such a good friend to everyone. My mother, Jessie Carter Hays, was a dear friend of the Moore family and spent many hours with them while growing up. I'm sure Joyce is having many reunions.
