And truth 'ner found, but ever sought

It helps my heart, the world to know,

Because of it, I'm glad to go!

“ *One of my first memories with you was when I was about 4 and I stood on a chair in front of the stove while you taught me how to cook an egg. I remember being so excited that I was actually getting to cook! And I can cook a mean egg now!
Thank you grandma for always calling to sing me Happy Birthday every year! You never missed one! Rest easy, Grandma Judi 💕*

“ Grandma Judi watched me as a child and one of my fondest memories was walking around the track every afternoon in the summer... We would stroll over to the local schools professional track to take walks around. This was after we watched the news of the day which was the iran-contra hearings , the perfect content to watch for a 4.5 year old I suppose! I'm sure we got some mr rogers neighborhood in there as well at some point. Rest in Peace Grandma . -Keely
