“ I served with Julia at Bloomington Hospital for over 15 years before she retired. She loved her babies and the new mothers and fathers admired her for her dedication and passion.

Julia was happy, energetic and creative. She and Mel renovated house after house, living in it just long enough for the windows to get dirty and then they were off to another new house. Her ability to pull together a decorating scheme was absolutely amazing.

Cindy and Pam, I am in New Zealand visiting family and unable to attend the service on Saturday but my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.....
