

Karen Sue Speicher

June 23, 1960 - May 23, 2019

Karen Sue Speicher, 58, of Bloomington, Indiana passed away at her home on May 22nd, 2019

Karen was born in Winimac, Indiana to Paul and Shirley Speicher on June 23rd, 1960.

Karen graduated from the Indiana Soldier and Sailor's Children's Home in 1979 and went on to obtain her bachelor's at Indiana State University, graduating in 1983. Karen was employed by the State of Indiana for 15 years doing what she loved as a recreational director. Later in her life, Karen was employed by Kroger for several years.

Karen loved worshipping God, and enjoyed the outdoors, camping, fires, and staying active. She loved and enjoyed her rottweiler, Kasey. Most of all, though, she loved and enjoyed her grandchildren.

Surviving is Karen's only child, Terri Anna Speicher Klodzen and Terri's husband, Neil Klodzen of Bloomington, Indiana, as well as Karen's three grandchildren, August, Juniper, and Beatrice Klodzen. Also surviving are Karen's sisters, Paulene Ridgeway and Kay Denney. Preceding Karen in death are her parents and her brother, Ernest Speicher. The love of Karen's life, Terry Gooden, went to be with the Lord on March 15, 2016.

Karen loved Jesus and was excited to meet him. While grieving, Karen's family is rejoicing over Karen's homecoming with the Lord.

In lieu of flowers, kindly send any donations to Karen's family to assist with funeral expenses

“ Hello my name is Cathy Wheatley. I deliver the Herald times newspaper to the circle k 056 I met Karen about 2 years ago and we instantly became friends. We would have a cigarette together and exchange stories about our grandkids whom she loved very much. She was a funny and sometimes crazy woman. Sometimes we would get Starbucks coffee together. She loved her coffee. She will be missed dearly. Love ya Karen. Fly high my friend. Fly high.
