

Kathleen M. "Kate" O'Shea

October 29, 1942 - December 17, 2022

Kathleen M. (Kate) O'Shea (10/29/42) peacefully passed away late Saturday, December 17th, at the Hearthstone Health Campus. Kate is survived by: her sister Karen and Bill Hicks, her brother Bill O'Shea, many nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews. She cherished time spent with her large extended family, near and far. Kate was a loving and caring sister, aunt and friend to many. She enjoyed traveling, reading, photography, and spending time with her cats.

After receiving her Bachelors and Masters degrees from Indiana University, Kate went on to work for Indiana University Residential Program Services (RPS) for over 40 years. She volunteered her time with Indiana University, IU Health Bloomington Hospice and St. Paul's Catholic Center.

The family would like to extend their deepest gratitude to the staff of IU Health Bloomington Hospital, Hearthstone Health Campus and IU Health Bloomington Hospice for the care and support that was provided for Kate and the family.

Visitation will be on Wednesday, December 28th, 9am at St. Paul's Catholic Center, with 10am Mass and private burial to follow. In lieu of flowers, donations can be sent to IU Health Bloomington Hospice or St. Paul's Catholic Center.

Allen Funeral Home and Crematory have been entrusted with arrangements.
