"When you remember me, it means you have carried something of who I am with you, that I have left some mark of who I am on who you are.

It means that you summon me back to your mind even though countless years and miles may stand between us.

It means that even after I die, you can still see my face and hear my voice and speak to me in your heart."

“ BJ and Diane,

I was sad to see your mom, Kay, died recently and am thinking about both of you. I didn't know her real well but thought she had a lot of "spunk" and really seemed to enjoy life and her family. It is so tough losing a parent; it feels as though you have lost your anchor, like a link to past generations has been removed reminding us all of our own mortality. May God give you peace and strength over the coming months.

“ Dear Dianne and B.J., we are so sorry to learn of your great loss. You were so blessed, as was I, to have the love of a dear sweet mother for so many years. The memories are a comfort but you will miss her deeply forever. Kay was a great lady and so very kind to one and all. My own Mother cared very much for her when they were neighbors and always spoke highly of her friendship for years afterwards. Please know you're in our thoughts and prayers at this time.
