“ I met Kelly playing basketball in the early 90's. We hit it off immediately and became good friends. We spent hours upon hours playing hoops, going fishing, going to races and just hanging out. Kelly was one of the nicest kindest souls you could meet, and would help anyone in need. I pray strength, comfort, and peace for his wife Tammy, and his kids and family in this difficult time. Though it's been a few years since I'd seen Kelly, this still hurts as though I'd seen him yesterday. Knowing you are with are Father in Heaven and you aren't in any more pain or struggling to breath anymore, gives me comfort. Kelly you impacted alot of people's lives, including mine. You will be missed on this earth, but I know you are flying high with Jesus. Rest in Heaven my friend....Terry
