

Kelly V. Saysithideth

April 12, 1967 - June 17, 2015

Kelly V. Saysithideth passed away on June 17, 2015 at Hospice House in Bloomington, Indiana. She was born April 12, 1967 in Laos and emigrated to the United States as a refugee. Her favorite U.S. President was George H. W. Bush for the simple reason that his support of Laotian refugees allowed her to come to the United States and start a new life in California. She became a U.S. citizen on April 21, 1993.

Kelly met her fiancé, Timothy C. Colwell, in California and together they moved to Bloomington, Indiana in 1999. Kelly worked at Lowe's Home Improvement for 15 years and thoroughly enjoyed helping her customers every day. She took great pride in her work and never encountered a challenge that she could not master.

Kelly was an animal lover and treated all pets as equal family members. Her passion outside of work was her garden and her flowers. She spent many hours cultivating beautiful flowers, vegetables and herbs. She loved to cook and made use of everything she grew.

Everyone that Kelly met became a friend and she selflessly gave her heart and love to everyone. No one was a stranger to her. Kelly is survived by her fiancé and hundreds of friends around the globe.

A Gathering of friends and family to celebrate Kelly's life will be held Monday June 22, 2015 from 2:00PM until 3:00PM with a Memorial Service at 3:00PM at Allen Funeral Home and Crematory 4155 South Old State Road 37.

Memorial contributions may be given to the Monroe County Humane Society and online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

“ Tim,

I was so saddened to hear of Kelly's passing. My heart goes out to you and all of her friends. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time. Kelly's life exemplifies an old song, "What a Wonderful World." I hope if you play the song you can see Kelly's bright smile as the words play.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Steele

“ We were shocked and saddened to hear of Kelly's passing and our hearts go out to her family and loved ones. She was always so sweet and kind to us and we enjoyed talking with her when we ran into her at Lowes; she was always so friendly and funny. She was just one of those people who you could not help but like and she was so genuinely nice with no pretense about her. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.
