“ Kenny’s father, Bobby, passed away when Kenny was still in high school. Kenny came to live with my husband, Don, who was Kenny’s uncle, and me in our home in Ellettsville Indiana. I remember this time because Kenny was so helpful and so sweet with my children, Tami and Greg. Kenny was always willing to play with the kids or help Don or I with whatever we were doing. He loved going to the races with us when Don was racing. And then years later, he continued going to the races when Greg & Tami were racing . Kenny was such a sweet guy and was so very proud of his children, Brandy and Michael. My condolences to the entire family. Kenny recently texted me and told me that I was a very special aunt to him. He will be greatly missed.
