

Kent E Berglund Jr.

May 9, 1965 - May 24, 2018

Known by many, Kent E. Berglund Jr. died peacefully in his sleep at his sister's home on Thursday, May 24, 2018. Kent was born May 9, 1965, to Kent E. Berglund, Sr. and Sheila Berglund and was raised in Bloomington, Indiana. He graduated from Bloomington South High School, where he was Senior Class President, and attended I.U. Kent lived life to the fullest. He considered himself a Renaissance man. One of his greatest joys was anything that involved bicycling. Straight out of high school, he was asked to try out for the U.S.A. Olympic cycling team. He was an avid fan of baseball and the Real Madrid soccer team. He loved to discuss history and politics anytime and had a wonderful love of people. He will be greatly missed.

He was co-owner of Road Rash Industries, a bike repair shop where new bikes were also built. He worked at numerous restaurants including Uptown Café, Runcible Spoon and Darn Good Soup.

He played bass guitar in several musical groups including Trailside Killers, Restraining Orders and Go Mango, Area 51, Local Milk People and SNAG.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother Eva Berglund, who he loved dearly. He is survived by his parents, sisters Kim Berglund and Kristen Berglund and extended family including Danielle Urschel and Al Jarmakowicz, Beth Hamlin and John Barnitt, Chris Witt, and adopted mom and dad Judy and Lee Witt.

In lieu of flowers, family and friends are encouraged to contribute in Kent's memory to the Bloomington Community Bike Project, PO Box 1665, Bloomington, IN 47402 or 216 Madison Street, Bloomington, IN.

A Celebration of Kent's life will take place on Saturday, September 29, 2018, at 3:00 PM in Bloomington at the Bryan Park Woodlawn East Shelter House.

Online condolences, photos, and memories may be shared with the family at Allen Funeral Home and Crematory.
