Kevin E. Bonnell was born March 1, 1981 in Lafayette, Indiana. He died May 5, 2022 in Bloomington, Indiana where he made his home.

He adored his nephew and niece. He had a shining intelligence that was amazing. He was a much loved son and brother and an all around wonderful person.

Those left to honor his memory include his parents, Larry and Judith Bonnell of Iowa, his brother Brian (Ashley) of Iowa, nephew Carson and niece Camilla of Iowa, his special and best friend Rebecca Dill, of Delphi, Indiana, several aunts, uncles and cousins and his cat Chloe.

Those wishing to honor Kevin's memory may make a donation in his name to the Twin Lakes High School Marching Band, Monticello, Indiana, any no-kill animal shelter or by simply extending kindness to others.

“ I just learned of his passing today. Kevin was one of the kindest, most talented, most fascinating people I have ever met. The world is better because he was in it.

“ Kevin and I laughed a lot over the past year at this picture! It's one of several from that Tony Walters shared with me from a birthday party for Brian.
I'll miss talking to Kevin. He was so sincere and his humor was very remarkable!
