

Lana Gail Summers

March 21, 1944 - June 13, 2015

Lana Gail Summers of Nashville, Indiana, passed away on June 13, 2015 at her residence. Lana is the daughter of Roy F. and Lone (Mueller) and was born on March 21, 1944, in Buffalo, New York. Lana graduated from North High School in Evansville, Indiana, and attended the University of Evansville. After beginning a career in commercial art, Lana realized her childhood dream by establishing Hayworth Stables in West Newton, Indiana, where she participated in every kind horse related activity: breeding, showing, racing, boarding and training. Lana's greatest joy was coaching young horsemen. Lana belonged to a variety of horse related organizations and founded the White River Trail Riders. In her free time, she was an avid gardener creating extensive plantings in rock slopes at her home in Nashville.

Lana is survived by her husband, Dick, of 49 years; her son, Garrett R. Summers; and sister, Tana (Mike) Chapman.

Tribute Wall

SW

“ To Dick Summers - husband of Lana; Don Brooks (a past co-worker) is trying to reach you - Garrett R. Summers (son of Lana & Dick) - if you get this note - please call Don Brooks at 812-322-5571. I believe he is trying to contact the family to give his condolences - I too JUST found out that Lana has passed. I too give my condolences to the family. Sincerely; Suzette Weakley

---

Suzette Weakley - April 24, 2016 at 05:03 PM

MR

“ It was a pleasure knowing Lana. It wasn't for long but it was worth it. Tough and funny, there wasn't a dull moment with her. I know you're rested and at peace. Sleep well Lana.

---

Mary Rhoda Rhoda - October 26, 2015 at 03:59 PM