

Lance Eric DePhue

October 11, 1960 - March 15, 2012

Lance Eric DePhue, age 51 of Bloomington passed away from injuries he sustained in an automobile accident late Thursday night in Johnson County. He was born in Bedford, Indiana to Myrna DePhue Chambers on October 11, 1960. Lance was a 1979 graduate of Bloomington High School South, and spent his professional career in brick masonry work. He worked on a number of various job sites such as Indiana University, Indianapolis, and most recently Lucas Oil Stadium, the home of the Indianapolis Colts. He also owned his company, known as BiG Red Masonry. Lance was involved with the B.P.O.E. of Bloomington, was a huge NASCAR fan as well as the Colts. Lance was also very proud of his service in the Army's 101st Airborne Division out of Ft. Campbell, serving abroad as well as in the States. He leaves behind his sister, Monika Chambers of Bloomington; daughter Tiffany Shields of Bloomington; a son Andrew Bryant of Tennessee; grandchildren, Dorian Borom, Tianna Kincade, Cantrell Kincade, and D.J. Terrell; nieces and nephews Eden Branaman, Jacob Branaman, and Tabetha Branaman; an uncle Phillip "Pooch" DePhue; an aunt Vicki Dobson and husband Murl of Bloomington, and aunt Sharon Chilton of Seaside, Oregon. Lance was preceded in death by his grandparents Gladys and Edwin "Jake" DePhue, mother Myrna DePhue Chambers, a brother Cody Chambers, and his wife Barb DePhue in March of 2011. Memorial Services will be announced at later date. Allen Funeral Home 4155 South Old Highway 37 is handling the arrangements and online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfunerlhome.org.

Tribute Wall

GA

“ *My heart goes with your family.
I did not have occasion to meet Lance, but I know almost everyone
he is related to, including me.
I hope you each find joy in seeing and comforting each other.
You are one of my favorite families of all time.*

As ever, Gloria

Gloria Stillions Ault - March 22, 2013 at 08:18 AM