“ Sorry to hear about it! Larry was a good guy! Known him since high school. He used to ump for me when I was vice-president of Smithville Little League, 35 years-ago. Know his sons also. Would have gone to his visitation but am under self-quarantine for covid.

“ Larry you will be missed. You were a wonderful man and father and grandfather. I enjoyed all the times I was around you especially playing euchre or poker. Those were fun times and now good memories. You always treated me with care and kindness for that I will always be grateful. Greg is just like you and it's nice to know that he'll continue your legacy in life. I will love and miss you always. My prayers go out to Greg and his kids, to Damon and Tracey, and Cheray and Rob. Im truely sorry for your loss. May God be with you all.
Love you all!!
